Ms. Sullivan,

It was good meeting with you yesterday about the progress of the application project. We are happy with the progress you have made and glad you are able to make some of the last minutes changes we brought up in the meeting. I will hopefully have the examples and templates you requested for you by next Monday. I have lined up a few testers if you need them as we move forward. Thank you and if you have any other questions please feel free to reach out to me.
